DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 16, 17, 22, 27, 29 and 30 are objected to because of the following informalities and/or defect:

In these claims, the term of "amorphous oxide" should read as: --layer of an amorphous oxide material--; and, the term of "metal oxide" should read as: --metal oxide layer--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1, 5-10, 17-18, 20, 22-25, and 27-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for a semiconductor structure formed with a monocrystalline metal oxide of Sr-Ba titanate that in the instant invention enables the formation of the recited amorphous oxide material between the substrate and the recited monocrystalline metal oxide, does not reasonably provide enablement for a semiconductor structure formed with each of the non-Sr-Ba titanate monocrystalline metal oxides recited in claim 1. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. It is not clear how such non-Sr-Ba titanate monocrystalline metal oxides could be formed such that the recited amorphous oxide material could still be formed between the substrate and such non-Sr-Ba titanate monocrystalline metal oxide, and so as to form the recited template and the overlying monocrystalline material.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 4 and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are: the positional relationship(s) between the recited "layer of an amorphous oxide material" and the recited "metal oxide layer".

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b) 37 CFR 1.78(b) provides that when two or more applications filed by the same applicant contain conflicting claims, elimination of such claims from all but one application may be required in the absence of good and sufficient reason for their retention during pendency in more than one application.

Double-patenting conflicts still exist between claims of the relevant issued patents and claims in the co-pending applications which include claims 1, 4-10, 16-18, 20, 22-25, and 27-30 in the present application, as explained in the previous office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on July 25, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's arguments fail to adequately address the concerns raised in the claimed rejections, especially the rejection to claim 1, set forth in both of the previous office action and the current office action under 35 U.S.C. 112, the first paragraph. No amendments and/or specific arguments in response to these concerns are found in the July-05-2205 amendment.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
